

Volunteering for the Marshall Community Foundation

The Marshall Community Foundation is grateful for our legion of volunteers.

From vetting scholarship applicants to assisting in the planning of community outreach initiatives, our volunteers provide the expertise and energy needed to be excellent stewards of our donor's resources.

If you are interested in serving on a committee of the Foundation, please contact Shannon Tiernan, Executive Director at (269) 781-2273 or info@marshallcf.org for more information.

Thank you for your interest!
